

CANTATA NO. 57 (BWV 51)
"Jauchzet Gott in allen Landen"

Johann S. Bach
(1685-1750)

(written for performance on the Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity and on other Sundays)

Aria: Praise ye! Praise Jehovah, all ye people of every nation!
Let all creatures, great and small, that the heavens
and earth contain,
sing His praise, exalt His glory.
We will also to our God offer thanks for all His mercies, for He hath, in time of need, ever been our rock and fortress.
Praise Jehovah, all ye people!

Recitativo:

We worship in the Holy Temple wherein God's glory
dwelleth,
And pray to Him who every morning rich blessings
showers upon us.
We give Him thanks for all His loving care.
Although our faltering lips can never tell His goodness,
He will accept the praise our grateful hearts would render.

Aria: Father, may Thy loving mercies fall on us as morning dew.
For Thy grace so freely given, we our grateful
thanks would render,
And in all that we are doing, show ourselves to by Thy children.

Chorale:

All honour, praise and glory to God the Father,
Son, and Holy Gholst,
The great eternal Three in One!
The Lord is our Defender, and He knows us well.
He shareth all our sorrows and comforts all our woes.
When earthly trials are over, we with the saints
in heaven
Shall praise Him evermore. Alleluia!
