HYMN

You Are the Way
The Call

Dundee

Two hymns are sung "responsively" between the congregation and soloist. The congregation sings You Are the Way to the tune Dundee from the Edinburgh Psalter; the setting is by Paul Bouman. The soloist sings Ralph Vaughn Williams' The Call (LBW 513).

Congregation:

You are the way; through you alone
 Can we the Father find;
 In you, O Christ, has god revealed
 His heart, his will, his mind!

Soloist:

Come, my way, my truth, my life:
Such a way as gives us breath;
Such a truth as ends all strife;
Such a life as conquers death.

Choir:

You are the truth, your Word alone
True wisdom can impart;
You only can inform the mind
And purify the heart.

Soloist:

Come, my light, my feast, my strength:
Such a light as shows as feast;
Such a feast as mends in length;
Such a strength as makes his guest.

Choir:

You are the life; the rending tomb
Proclaims your conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in you
Not death nor hell shall harm.

Soloist:

Come, my joy, my love, my heart:
Such a joy as none can move;
Such a love as none can part;
Such a heart as joys in love.

Congregation:

You are the way, the truth, the life;
Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win,
Whose joys eternal flow.

 Come, O Lord of hosts, and stay;
 Come, with all your lovingkindness,
 Hear your people as they pray;
 And your fullest benediction
 Shed within these walls today.
3. Grant, we pray, to all your faithful
 All the gifts they ask to gain;
 What they gain from you forever
 With the blessed to retain;
 And hereafter in your glory
 Evermore with you to reign.
4. Praise and honor to the Father,
 Praise and honor to the Son,
 Praise and honor to the Spirit,
 Ever three and ever one:
 One in might and one in glory
 While unending ages run. Amen.
