TEXT

Der Hirt auf dem Felsen (Shepherd on the Rock)

When aloft to the highest peak I go
And view the valley far below,
And sing there
Up from the dusty vale I hear
My every note re-echoed clear,
The echo from the cavern.
The further I can fling my voice,
The clearer it returns to me
From far below
But further still my darling dwells,
In vain I long to reach her there,
Too far off.

Again in grief my strength is spent,
No joy the path to cheer,
No hope for me nor yet content
I live so lively here.
The yearning in my song of love
So haunts the woods my day and night.
It draws the heart towards heaven above
With wonder-working might.

The spring will be coming with joys in store for me,
Through high summer pastures to wander once more.
The further I can fling my voice,
The clearer it returns to me.

text: Wilhelm Muller
(1794-1827)

In our celebration of the Holy Communion today we rejoice to receive the crucified and risen Christ, truly present in the bread and wine of this Sacrament for the forgiveness of sins and the strengthening of our faith and life.

Those baptized Christians desiring to receive our Lord's body and blood should approach by the center aisle to receive the body of Christ from the presiding minister in the palm of the hand, then move to the side to receive the blood of Christ from one of the assisting ministers. Those who wish to receive by drinking from the cup, proceed to the chalice nearest the presiding minister, and assist by tipping the chalice at its base. Those receiving by intinction (dipping the bread into the cup), go to the second chalice on either side. Those who do not wish to commune are welcome to receive a blessing. Please approach with open hands to receive the elements, with folded hands to receive a blessing.

Prayer at the Close of Day will be the evening prayer of our community tonight, following the Faculty Recital.
