Prayer of the Day

☞ The Lord be with you.

☞ And also with you.

☞ Let us pray. O God, you have prepared for those who love you joys beyond understanding. Pour into our hearts such love for you that, loving you above all things, we may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

☞ Amen (be seated)

Liturgy of the Word

First Lesson

Jeremiah 28:5-9

☞ The word of the Lord.

☞ Thanks be to God.

Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18

(the choir sings an antiphon; the psalm is sung antiphonally between choir and congregation)

Your love, O LORD, forever | will I sing;

from age to age my mouth will pro | claim your faithfulness.

For I am persuaded that your love is esta | blished forever;

you have set your faithfulness firmly | in the heavens.

"I have made a covenant with my | chosen one;

I have sworn an oath to Da | vid my servant:

'I will establish your | line forever,

and preserve your throne for all | generations.'" (antiphon)

Happy are the people who know the | festal shout!
They walk, O LORD, in the light | of your presence.
They rejoice daily | in your name;
they are jubilant | in your righteousness.
For you are the glory | of their strength,
and by your favor our might | is exalted.
Truly, the LORD | is our ruler;
the Holy One of Israel | is our king. (antiphon)

Second Lesson

Romans 6:12-23

- The word of the Lord.
- Thanks be to God.

Verse

sung by the choir (stand)

Alleluia. May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 10:40-42

Prior to the reading, spoken:

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 10th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Following the reading, spoken:

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ. (be seated)

HOLY COMMUNION: All baptized Christians who commune in their home congregations are welcome at the Lord's Table. In Holy Communion we receive the crucified and risen Christ who is truly present in the bread and wine, and in our community gathered to eat and drink these gifts of God.

Those who desire to receive the Sacrament are invited to use the two center aisles to receive the bread, then move to the sides, left or right, to receive the wine from one of the assisting ministers. Wine is available either by common cup or intinction (dipping the bread into the wine). Those who do not wish to commune are welcome to come forward for a blessing. Please approach the table with open hands to receive the element and with folded hands to receive a blessing.

OUR OFFERING today is designated for Lutheran World Relief, an agency devoted to world hunger.

THE COVER ART depicts a verse from our gospel today: "whoever gives a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple - none of these will lose their reward." As Christ welcomes us in baptism we are called to welcome others with God's unconditional love and grace.
