Hildegard von Bingen (1098 – 1179)

Hail, O greenest branch, sprung forth in the airy breezes of the prayers of the saints.
So the time has come that your sprays have flourished;
Hail, hail to you.
The heat of the sun has exuded from you like the aroma of balm.
For the beautiful flower sprang from you which gave all perfumes their aroma.
And they have radiated anew in their full freshness.
Whence the skies bestowed dew upon the pasture,
And all the Earth was made joyful because her womb brought forth corn,
And because the birds of the firmament built their nests in her.
Then there was harvest ready for Man
And a great rejoicing of banqueters.
Now, let there be praise to the Highest.

GOSPEL

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the sixth chapter. Glory to you, O Lord.

John 6:1-15 Feeding the five thousand

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of

Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world." When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

“O Master, Let Me Walk with You”

LBW 492

O Master, let me walk with you

In lowly paths of service true;

Tell me your secret; help me bear

The strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move

By some clear, winning word of love;

Teach me the wayward feet to stay,

And guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me your patience; share with me

A closer, dearer company,

In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,

In trust that triumphs over wrong,

In hope that sends a shining ray

Far down the future's broad'ning way,

In peace that only you can give;

With you, O Master, let me live.

POST-COMMUNION BLESSING AND CANTICLE

He recalls his promises and leads his people forth in joy

PRAYER

Let us pray.

We give you thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us through the healing power of this gift of life; and we pray that in your mercy you would strengthen us, through this gift, in faith toward you and in fervent love toward one another; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN

“Now Thank We All Our God”

LBW 534

Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who, from our mothers' arms,
Has blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

Oh, may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all harm
In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heav'n adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

DISMISSAL
