Introit

The Road Home

Stephen Paulus
(b. 1949)

Tell me where is the road I can call my own,
That I left, that I lost, so long ago?
All these years I have wandered, oh, when will I know
There's a way, there's a road that will lead me home.

Anthem*Offertory*John Ness Beck
(1930-1987)

With what shall I come before the Lord and bow myself before God on high?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings?
Shall I come before him with yearling calves?

Will the Lord be pleased with thousand of rams,
with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I give him my firstborn for my transgressions,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

He has told you, O mortal: He has told you what is good.
And what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Anthem

The Road Home

Stephen Paulus
(b. 1949)

Tell me where is the road I can call my own,
that I left, that I lost, so long ago?
All these years I have wandered, oh, when will I know
there's a way, there's a road that will lead me home.

After wind, after rain, when the dark is done,
as I wake from a dream in the gold of day,
through the air there's a calling from far away,
there's a voice I can hear that will lead me home.

Rise up, follow me, come away, is the call,
with the love in your heart as the only song;
there is no such beauty as where you belong,
rise up, follow me, I will lead you home.

Prayers and Blessing

Rise up, follow me, I will lead you home.
