RESPONSIVE PRAYER AND HYMN

Show us your mercy, O God,
and grant us your salvation.

Give us the joy of your saving help again,
and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Give peace in all the world;
for only in you can we live in safety.

Keep the nations under your care,
and guide us in the way of justice and truth.

Let your way be known upon earth;
your saving health among all nations.

Let not the needy be forgotten,
nor the hope of the poor be taken away.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and sustain me with your Holy Spirit.

Lord, hear my prayer,
and let my cry come before you.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.

God our creator, you have given us work to do and call us to use our talents for the good of all. Guide us as we work, and teach us to live in the Spirit who made us your sons and daughters, in the love that made us sisters and brothers, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Almighty God bless us, defend us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

Amen.

Sing a new song to God the Lord, sing and give praise with one accord.
For his salvation he doth give, that, through his mercy, we may live.

Worship the Lord in holiness, hymns of great joy to him address.
Honor his works and bless his name, his grace and truth to all proclaim.

Heaven above and earth below, ocean and field his glory show.
All of God's creatures sing his praise, let us now too our voices raise.
Glory and thanks to him belong, honor him evermore in song.

JOHN THE BAPTIST

We are now on the far side of the sun from Christmas and the celebration of Jesus' birth. In the Northern Hemisphere the days now begin to grow shorter as we celebrate the birth of John the Baptist, the forerunner of Messiah. In comparing himself to Jesus, John once said, "He must increase, but I must decrease." Though John was eager to see his own ministry eclipsed, Jesus honored John as being the greatest prophet.
