SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION | SUNDAY, 27 JUNE 2010 | 10.00 AM

TODAY'S SERVICE AND MUSIC

In Today's Old Testament reading the prophet Elijah anoints Elisha, calling him to service in the Lord's name. In the Gospel reading Jesus calls ordinary people to follow him and not look back. Following Jesus means journeying to Jerusalem, which means going with him all the way to the cross. In Christ's death on the cross we are freed from the power of sin and death to live as saints in the kingdom of God. In today's second reading St. Paul tells us what that looks like: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Today is also the commemoration of St. Cyril, Bishop of Alexandria, who died in 444 after a lifetime of defending orthodox teachings about the person of Christ.

Our worship music this morning juxtaposes texts and melodies from saints of all times and places. Today's hymn tunes come from Lutheran cantors of sixteenth-century Germany—Philipp Nicolai (ELW 786), Johann Hermann Schein and Bartholomaeus Gesius (ELW 799)—as well as Swiss Geneva (ELW 783) and twentieth-century Liberian composer Billema Kwillia (ELW 491). The Chapel Choir's contributions include works by Mendelssohn, Scotsman John Bell, and contemporary American composers Ralph M. Johnson and John Folkening. Our setting of the liturgy, ELW Setting 3, was composed by Richard Hillert, who wrote many works for Lutheran Summer Music, and who died in 2010.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

We stand and face the cross

In the name of the Father,
and of the + Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hid:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Silence is kept for reflection

Most merciful God, we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.
We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name.
Amen.

In the mercy of almighty God,
Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins.
As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority,
I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins,
in the name of the Father,
and of the + Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Antiphon

¹Protect me, O God, for I take ref-¹uge in you;
I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord, my good a-¹bove all other."

²All my delight is in the godly that are¹ in the land, upon those who are noble a-¹mong the people.

³But those who run after¹ other gods shall have their troubles¹ multiplied.

⁴I will not pour out drink offerings¹ to such gods, never take their names up-¹on my lips.

⁵O LORD, you are my portion [|] and my cup;
it is you who up- [|] hold my lot.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

Today's offering is designated for Lutheran Disaster Relief and will assist with the ongoing recovery efforts in the Gulf Coast region

Sing Hey for the Carpenter

John Bell & Graham Maule
arr. Ralph Johnson (b. 1956)

Come with me, come wander, come welcome the world, where strangers might smile or where stones may be hurled; come leave what you cling to, lay down what you clutch and find, with hands empty, that hearts can hold much.

Refrain:

Sing hey for the carpenter leaving his tools!
Sing hey for the Pharisees leaving their rules!
Sing hey for the fishermen leaving their nets!
Sing hey for the people who leave no regrets!

Come walk in my company, come sleep by my side, come savor a lifestyle with nothing to hide;
come sit at my table and eat with my friends, discovering that love which the world never ends. (Refrain)

Come share in my laughter, come close to my fears, come find yourself washed with the kiss of my tears, come stand close at hand while I suffer and die, and find in three days how I never will lie. (Refrain)

Come leave your possessions, come share out your treasure, come give and receive without method or measure, come loose every bond that's resisting the Spirit, enabling the earth to be yours to inherit. (Refrain)

OFFERTORY HYMN

ELW 691

Accept, O Lord, the Gifts We Bring

BARBARA ALLEN

OFFERTORY PRAYER

God of mercy and grace, the eyes of all wait upon you, and you open your hand in blessing.
Fill us with good things at your table, that we may come to the help of all in need,
through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and Lord.
Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks and praise to you, O Lord, holy Father, through Christ our Lord; Who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with the Church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

You are indeed holy, almighty and merciful God.
You are most holy,
and great is the majesty of your glory.

You so loved the world that you gave your only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life.

We give you thanks for his coming into the world to fulfill for us your holy will and to accomplish all things for our salvation.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Christ has died. Christ is ris - en. Christ will come a - gain.

Remembering, therefore, his salutary command, his life-giving passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension, and the promise of his coming again, we give thanks to you, O Lord God Almighty, not as we ought but as we are able;
we ask you mercifully to accept our praise and thanksgiving and with your Word and Holy Spirit to bless us, your servants, and these your own gifts of bread and wine, so that we and all who share in the body and blood of Christ may be filled with heavenly blessing and grace, and, receiving the forgiveness of sin, may be formed to live as your holy people and be given our inheritance with all your saints.

To you, O God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory in your holy church, now and forever.

A - men, a - men, a - men.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION

Our Lord Jesus Christ welcomes you to this meal of the baptized. The crucified and risen Christ is truly present in the Lord's Supper, giving us his true body and blood as food and drink. We receive communion at the head of the center aisle, receiving the consecrated bread and then drinking directly from the chalice or dipping the bread into the wine (intinction). Those with a gluten allergy may ask the pastor for a gluten-free host.
