Today's Service and Scriptures

Today's texts offer a rich and varied picture of God's abundance poured out for a people that God cannot stop loving.

God the Lover is pictured by the prophet Isaiah in a range of feminine images, as well as those of overflowing water. Jerusalem, the city of God, will nurse the faithful from her consoling breast, as prosperous and abundant as an overflowing stream. "As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you, God declares."

Jesus, sending disciples out in pairs to share the fulfillment of Isaiah's Good News in his own ministry, continues the theme of inclusive grace. The work will be challenging, but the rewards will be many. And those sent – including us – can both rejoice as well as rest in the assurance that in our baptism into Christ our names are written in heaven.

Paul's concluding chapter of his letter to the Galatians completes the gracious circle of readings and offers us a continuing challenge in our work on behalf of the Gospel. As we reach out to others with the love we have ourselves first received from God, Paul encourages: "Do not grow weary in doing what is right."

As we gather this morning for worship, we may find ourselves challenged, confused, or tired in our call to serve with such abandon. Yet, the refreshment and encouragement we need is here for us once more today. In bread and cup, in water and Word we are nourished and fed for work that, without Christ's presence with and for us, can seem overwhelming. Take heart! As we serve together for the good of all, Christ makes us new and strengthens us just, "as a mother comforts her child."

SILENCE is requested in this Sanctuary of God before worship begins. SILENCE allows opportunity for each person to prepare to worship God. SILENCE helps all present to create an atmosphere of reverence and awe in anticipation of our worship of God.

SILENCE provides the only lasting context in which we are equipped to appropriate and to accept and to understand:

"Be still, and know that I am God."

❖ Confession and Forgiveness

At the sound of the baptismal waters being poured, please rise and face the font.

P In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

a Amen.

P Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

a Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God,

a we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.

We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.

Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

P In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

a Amen.

Sermon

❖Hymn of the Day

#580

"How Clear is our Vocation, Lord"

REPTON

❖Apostles' Creed

a I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

❖ Prayers of Intercession

Following each petition:

A Hear us, O God,
a your mercy is great.

The presiding minister concludes the prayers:

P Into your hands, gracious God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through Jesus Christ, our Savior.
a Amen.

❖ Peace

L The peace of Christ be with you always.
C And also with you.

Please share a sign of God's peace with one another.

Offering

Today's offering will be given to the Malaria Campaign to which many of our Lutheran Churches across North America have been contributing for the past several years. The goal is to eliminate unnecessary malaria deaths, particularly in children, through the gift of mosquito nets and medications. Since the campaign began, the incidence of childhood deaths from this mosquito-borne illness has been reduced by 50 per cent.

❖ Offertory Response

#188

“Create in Me a Clean Heart”

J. A. Freylinghausen (1670-1739)

❖ Offertory Prayer

A God of mercy and grace,
the eyes of all wait upon you,
and you open your hand in blessing.
Fill us with good things at your table,
that we may come to the help of all in need,
through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and Lord.
a Amen.

+ MEAL +

❖ Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you,
almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ;
who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

❖ Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

❖ Eucharistic Prayer

P Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal:
you we praise and glorify, you we worship and adore.

You formed the earth from chaos; you encircled the globe with air;
you created fire for warmth and light; you nourish the lands with water.

You molded us in your image,
and with mercy higher than the mountains,
with grace deeper than the seas,
you blessed the Israelites and cherished them as your own.

That also we, estranged and dying, might be adopted to live in your Spirit, you called to us through the life and death of Jesus.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Together as the body of Christ, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

C Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

P With this bread and cup we remember your Son, the first-born of your new creation.
We remember his life lived for others, and his death and resurrection, which renews the face of the earth.
We await his coming, when, with the world made perfect through your wisdom, all our sins and sorrows will be no more.

C Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

P Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and compassionate, send upon us and this meal your Holy Spirit, whose breath revives us for life, whose fire rouses us to love.
Enfold in your arms all who share this holy food.
Nurture in us the fruits of the Spirit, that we may be a living tree, sharing your bounty with all the world.

C Amen. Come, Holy Spirit.

P Holy and benevolent God, receive our praise and petitions, as Jesus received the cry of the needy, and fill us with your blessing, until, needy no longer and bound to you in love, we feast forever in the triumph of the Lamb: through whom all glory and honor is yours,
O God, O Living One, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy church, now and forever.

C Amen.

❖ Lord's Prayer

a Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.

 Save us from the time of trial
 and deliver us from evil.
 For the kingdom, the power,
 and the glory are yours,
 now and forever. Amen.

❖ Fraction and Invitation

The invitation to this table comes from Christ himself. The Crucified and Risen One is truly present in the Lord's Supper, giving us himself for the forgiveness of sins and the renewal of life. In this meal our baptism is continued and refreshed; we are strengthened for service in the world. Please come forward with the ushers' assistance to receive the bread from the presider or assisting minister. You may then receive wine from the common cup by drinking from it directly, or from the intincting chalice by dipping your bread into the wine. Gluten-free wafers are available from your server.

Agnus Dei

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.
 Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.
