Worship Notes

Today we celebrate two great figures of the early church, Peter and Paul, who represent the spread of the gospel to both Jews and Gentiles and, according to tradition, were martyred on this date. The witness of Peter and Paul inspires us as we seek ways to faithfully proclaim the gospel in our contemporary context.

These two strong-willed apostles are the pillars of the church in the first generation after Christ. Peter was one of the Twelve, one who both offered a glorious confession of faith and later denied knowing Jesus. Paul once led the persecution of Christians, then was converted and helped bring the faith to non-Jewish people.

Our opening hymn, Glories of Your Name Are Spoken, draws upon today's appointed psalm (Psalm 87) as well as Isaiah 33:20-21 and Jeremiah 1:5. It was written by John Newton (1725-1807) who is perhaps most famous for his hymn Amazing Grace. The tune AUSTRIA was composed by Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809) as an Austrian national anthem and performed for Francis II, the last Holy Roman Emperor, on his birthday in 1797. Haydn based the tune on a Croatian folksong and later used it as the theme for the slow movement in his "Emperor" string quartet, Op. 76, no. 3.

The setting of Psalm 87 sung today was composed for the 2008 Lutheran Summer Music Academy & Festival, held at Gustavus Adolphus College. Today's gospel acclamation was newly composed for this morning's service by LSM composer-in-residence Ralph M. Johnson.

Offering

Today's offering will be given to Empowering Learners, a philanthropic project that benefits the learners, teachers, and schools of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Namibia (ELCIN). Founded in 2010 and completely volunteer driven, this charity delivers books (both in print and Braille format), encyclopedias, computers, and educational materials to the rural north of Namibia, where unemployment is greater than 58 percent and most people live on less than two dollars a day. This project is an outgrowth of a Luther College travel course entitled "Choral Singing in Namibia and South Africa." For more information, see www.empoweringlearnersnamibia.org.

“You Fill All Creation”

THE ASH GROVE
arr. Ronald A. Nelson (1927-2014)

You fill all creation, O Source and Summation, descended, ascended, you fill all the earth.
You, Christ, are the measure of life's truest treasure;
your grace is our being; your presence our worth.
To each you have given the gifts of your heaven
and called us to service unselfish and true.
So graced by one Spirit your peace we inherit
and all our small labors converge into you.

O Infinite Center, our open hearts enter,
take from us all falseness, unholy, unwise;
then bathed in God's bounty and bound to your body,
your people may flourish and grow into Christ.
One faith is our story; one God is our glory;
one hope holds creation below and above:
That God in Christ dwelling with Spirit upwelling
may fashion one people united by love.

~ Susan Palo Chervien (b. 1953)

❖ Offertory Hymn

“Let All Things Now Living,” st. 2

God rules all the forces: the stars in their courses and sun in its orbit obediently shine;
the hills and the mountains, the rivers and fountains,
the deeps of the ocean proclaim God divine.
We too should be voicing our love and rejoicing;
with glad adoration a song let us raise
till all things now living unite in thanksgiving:
“To God in the highest, hosanna and praise!”

❖ Offertory Prayer

- A God of mercy and grace,
the eyes of all wait upon you,
and you open your hand in blessing.
Fill us with good things at your table
that we may come to the help of all in need,
through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and Lord.
- C Amen.

✠ MEAL ✠

Our Fa - ther in heav - en, hal - lowed be your name,

Give us to - day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we and de - liv - er us from e - vil. For the king - dom, the pow'r, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

Our Lord Jesus Christ welcomes all to this meal of the baptized. The crucified and risen Christ is truly present in the Lord's Supper, giving us his true body and blood as food and drink. We receive the consecrated bread and then drink directly from the cup or dip the bread into the wine (intinction). If medical/health concerns give you reason to avoid the wine or bread, please remember the teaching of the Christian Church that Christ is fully present in either element alone, bread or wine. Those with a gluten allergy may ask the pastor for a gluten-free host.
