SERVICE OF EVENING PRAYER (ELW)

Festival Week † 17-19 July 2014

Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival

WORSHIP NOTES

From the gathering around word and sacrament on the first day of the week, Christians are sent by God to continue their worship each day through lives of service. St. Paul's guidance to "pray without ceasing... for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thess. 5:17-18) suggests that the Christian life is prayer: openness to the presence of God, responsiveness to the word of God, recognition that all of life is in Christ, and engagement in care for one another and for the whole creation. Daily prayer is a gift that nourishes growth toward living all of daily life in prayer.

Evening and morning are primary times for common prayer in various faith traditions. For Christians, Evening Prayer and Morning Prayer have an additional dimension, calling to mind Christ's passage through death to resurrection. As evening comes, we look to the light of Christ that scatters the darkness, even as we anticipate the great awakening of the resurrection.

❖ THANKSGIVING FOR LIGHT

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

- L We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning you called light into being, and you set lights in the sky to govern night and day. In a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night you led your people into freedom. Enlighten our darkness by the light of your Christ; may your Word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path; for you are merciful, and you love your whole creation, and with all your creatures we give you glory, through your Son Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Psalm 19:1-4

setting by Rudolph de Lassus (c.1563-1625)

*Stars in the sky proclaim God's glory,
the firmament displays the Lord's work.
Day unto day takes up the story;
night unto night declares the glory of God's hand.
Their language is of silence, their voices are of beauty;
Their sound goes out to all lands, their message to earth's far bounds.*

1 God, who made the earth and heav-en, dark-ness and light:
2 And when morn a-gain shall call us to-run life's way,

Ho-ly Spir-it, free-ly giv-en, blest Three in One:
May your an-gel guards de-fend us, slum-ber sweet your mer-cy send us,
From the pow'r of e-vil hide us, in the nar-row path-way guide us,
When the last dread call shall wake us, then, O Lord, do not for-sake us,
