

LUTHERAN SUMMER MUSIC 2016

Oh, Praise the Gracious Power

THE EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Center for Faith and Life
Luther College

July 10, 2016 | 10:00 a.m.

OH, PRAISE THE GRACIOUS POWER

*Oh, praise the gracious pow'r
That tumbles walls of fear
And gathers in one house of faith
All strangers far and near:
We praise you, Christ!
Your cross has made us one!*

In anticipation of next year's 500th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation, we consider the reforming work of the Spirit through the cross of Christ.

At the heart of the Christian faith is the reformation of the human heart, made possible through Christ's death and resurrection and enacted in the life of each Christian and in the Christian assembly through water, meal, and word.

The reforming work of the Spirit through the cross of Christ forms the church to be a people and sends us out to be the hands, feet, and voice of God in the world.

In a human community broken by sin, a brokenness evidenced by wars, injustice, and oppression, God calls us to be reconciled to one another. The reforming work of the Spirit through the cross of Christ calls us to be neighbor and to restore the brokenness of the human community.

Brokenness goes beyond the human community to a creation marred and scarred by human carelessness. The reforming work of the Spirit through the cross of Christ calls us to care for creation and to be a restorative presence in the world.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism,
we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness.
Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

We give you thanks, O God,
for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters
and by your Word you created the world,
calling forth life in which you took delight.

Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.
Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom.
At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.
By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.

We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life.
We praise you for rain that waters the earth,
for the Mississippi River, the Upper Iowa River, Twin Springs and Dunning's Springs.

Above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ.
 Shower us with your Spirit,
 and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.
 To you be given honor and praise
 through Jesus Christ our Lord
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
Amen.

We face the cross.

Apostles' Creed

God has made us his people through our baptism into Christ.
Living together in trust and hope, we confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Each petition concludes:

Lord, in your mercy. . .

The assembly responds

. . . hear our prayer.

The prayers conclude:

Into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray,
trusting in your mercy; through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

We share a sign of Christ's peace with those around us.

We sit.

Offertory Prayer

Let us pray.

The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord, and you give them their food in due season.
You open wide your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. Nourish us all with these gifts, which you have first given, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks and praise to you...we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy Communion

Our Lord Jesus Christ welcomes you to this meal of the baptized.

The crucified and risen Christ is truly present in the Lord's Supper, giving us his true body and blood as food and drink.

Ushers will direct you to communion. After receiving the bread, proceed to the chalice; the first chalice is for drinking, the second for intinction (dipping the bread in the wine), and the third chalice contains grape juice.

Gluten-free host is available; ask as you receive the bread.
